

Preparing for – and Addressing the 4th trimester:
An interdisciplinary approach

2020 NYSPA Perinatal Partnership Conference

June 11-12, 2020

Hilton Hotel & Conference Center, Albany, NY

Call for Session Proposals

The New York State Perinatal Association's Annual Perinatal Partnership Conference is the premier maternal/infant health professional education conference in New York State, traditionally drawing an average of 200 - 250 health and human service providers and professionals from across the state. Linked to the multi-disciplinary focus of NYSPA and intention for cross-disciplinary collaboration and education; conference registrants include obstetricians, pediatricians, neonatal and maternal-fetal specialists, midwives, nurse practitioners, nurses, genetic counselors, social workers, nutritionists, lactation consultants, public health, community-based and social services professionals.

The 2020 Conference Planning Committee invites proposals for plenary and workshop sessions, as well as abstracts for poster presentations.

2019 Conference Title: Preparing for – and Addressing the 4th trimester: An interdisciplinary approach

Date: June 11-12, 2020

Location: The Hilton Hotel, Lodge St., Albany, NY

Conference Format: ▪ 5-7 Plenary Sessions: Duration: 1 – 1.25 hours (including Q&A)
▪ 8-12 Workshops: Duration: 1 hour (including Q&A)
▪ Poster Displays: Duration: throughout conference; Peer reviewed 2 tracks:

a) Research & Clinical Practice
b) Public or Community Perinatal/Maternal/Child Health, successful programs or promising practices

Theme subcategories: The NYSPA Conference Planning Committee invites health and related professionals to submit proposals for presentation at the 2020 conference. The goal for this 2 day conference is to present the latest research, policies, best practices and evidence based information that impacts birth outcomes and maternal and infant health and care.

Please consider the following subcategories for proposals, recognizing your individual or your group's knowledge and experience in the areas of clinical care, community, public and environmental health strategies and expertise related to maternal-child health (MCH):

- A. Clinical advances and/or best practices for maternal or infant care;
- B. Promising and/or best practices for community-based maternal infant health care/services
- C. Current & emerging issues in perinatal health & potential solutions
- D. Advances in genetic testing and applications
- E. Evidence-based programs: clinical research or implementation
- F. New areas of research or best practices in obstetrics, pediatrics and MICH
- G. Policies affecting MICH and their impact

Process: Complete the following proposal application. Incomplete proposals will not be reviewed.

Submission Timeline/Deadline:

Plenary & Workshop sessions: The committee will begin reviewing proposals in November 2019 and will continue doing so until the agenda is complete. We expect to complete the competitive review process and select all sessions no later than 2/29/20.

Poster abstracts can be submitted anytime between 11/15/19 and 4/1/20. Posters should be identified as to which category to be considered for. Abstracts will be peer reviewed for acceptance.

Proposals should be sent electronically to: Dawn Wesko, Conference Coordinator @ nyspa@nysperinatal.org

Acknowledgement & Notification:

All submissions will be acknowledged within 48 hours to confirm receipt and completeness.

Plenary and Workshop Proposals will be reviewed monthly and assigned a ranking. Selection decisions will begin being made by 11/30/19 and continue monthly until agenda is complete. Presenters will be notified either upon selection or by 2/29/20. Presenters MUST complete and return an acceptance agreement (including continuing education documentation) no later than 3/30/20. Any selected session for which the presenter does not complete the acceptance agreement will be withdrawn from the program and replaced with an alternative presentation and speaker.

Poster Abstracts will be reviewed on a rolling basis and no later than 4/15/20, with authors notified by 4/30/20. Poster authors MUST complete and return an acceptance agreement no later than 5/15/20 with a reservation fee of $25. The $25 fee is to cover the cost of the board rental but will be credited to the (one) author's conference registration fee. Any poster for which the author does not complete the acceptance agreement and submit the $25 fee by 5/15/20 will be withdrawn from the program.
